in 1885.

It is a matter for orders whether a proclamation announcing the demise should be issued as was the case in the Case of the late Srungeri Swamigalu.

No formal report has been received from the Dr. Comr. or the Palace Controller as regards the formal installation of the successor and his titular name. May information on this head be called for from the Dr. Comr. and a notification issued. The installation was fixed for the 5th inst. I hear that The Ceremony has been [illegible]

We must act strictly according to precedents. Unless ~~so there~~ it is usual to do so, I do not think that Notn is necessary.

The Case of the late Swamiji of Srungeri Matha was very peculiar as no ~~Nomination~~ initiation had been made before his demise.

A G.O. recording the Govt's with regret seems sufficient.
